DON'T STOP MY PAPER.

Don't stop my paper, winter,
Don't take my name off yet;
You know the times are stringent,
And money hard to get,
But tag a little harder
To what I mean to do,
And scrape the dimes together,
Enough for me and you.

I can't tell you to stop it;
I don't know I pay;
To do without my paper,
However others may;
I have to ask my neighbors
To give me their own part;
They don't justify, but mean it,
"Why don't you have your own?"

You can't tell how we'd miss it,
If by any tale,
Should happen not to reach us,
Or be a little late;
Then it is to be a humbug,
And things go wrong;
And, printer, if you are married,
You know the reason why.

I can't do without it,
It is to me a life,
For other people take it,
And, printer, so must I,
I, too, must keep my pocket,
And know what's going on,
Or feel, and

Fee For Announcing Candidates

For Circuit Judge.....$10
For Commonwealth's Attorney.....10

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

YOU ELECT JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce

Col. L. A. Stevens, of Christian county,

a candidate for the office of Circuit

Judge of the 2nd Judicial district,

subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1880.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce

Sam'l O. Graves, of Christian county,

a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney of the 2nd Judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1880.

Now Haven, Conn., has gone Democratic by 500 majority.

The wife of Bruce, the negro Senator, is almost white.

A woman, Mrs. Hoffman, is lecturing on temperance in Evansville.

Jac. Millickman swears that he is now ready for Lincoln.

We learn from several exchanges

that Christmas will shortly be here.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes celebrated his 70th birthday last Saturday

Louisiana comes gallantly to the front with a Democratic majority of 25,000.

Three distinguished Generals have died this year, Hood, Hooker and Davis.

Question for debate: Which is the more useful book, a Bible or a Dictionary?

The Evansville Courier, in an able article, declares for Seymour and Hayden.

To-morrow is the day the citizens of Louisville have set apart to make asses of themselves.

When he was in Burlington the Jackey was presented to Grant neatly printed on white satin.

The Virginia Legislature has been organized, and the Readjusters have a majority of 27 on joint ballot.

What is the difference between a chicken thief and the man who takes your umbrella? There is none.

The new editor of the "news" columns of the Courier-Journal is making things lively in that department.

Mr. Hayes is reported to have indefinitely declined a piece of backbone offered him at his Thanksgiving dinner.

King Alfonso and the Arch-duchess Marie Christine were married at the Atochi Church, Madrid, on the 29th ult.

The Paris (Tex.) Banner formerly edited by J. J. Wheeler has re-named publication as the Lamar Banner

edited by E. H. Harris.

A bill has been introduced in Congress to prohibit the use of the military on election days, which will revive the old discussion.

We have a package sent to the care of this office directed to the

"Protestant girl in Christian county,"

which she can obtain upon application.

We've gotten off one sharp thing

in our life. We know it was, for it was copied in the "wit and humor"

column of another News-paper last week without credit.

Wonder if Sam Harrison knows our eyes are "brown"? It may be that all of his gushings about "brown-eyed beauties" are intended for us.

Oh! don't now, Mr. Harrison, we don't like flattery!

An original poetical production in type and will appear in our next.

—Henderson News.

If we fail to get out a paper next week our readers will know the cause of our sickness.

The Democrats are examining the election returns in Maine, and probably enough illegal votes will be thrown out to elect several Democratic Senators and Representatives who were thought to be defeated.

The Radicals very uneasy. The Governor and Council are Democrats.

The 46th C. M. as assembled and commenced its regular session Dec.

1st. It stands thus:

SENATE. House.

Democrats 42. Democrats 150.

Republicans 33. Republicans 132.

Independent 1. National 11.

Democratic Maj. 8. Dem. Maj. 7.

Next nothing. But look here,

Gen'l Meacham, there may be "mil-

Some Good Timber.

The race for Commonwealth's Attorney is beginning to warm up, and the respective candidates are marshalling their forces preparatory to the charge that will prove disastrous to all, witness the mobilization of all and one. Who that one will be remains to be seen. There will be no lack of good material to select from.

Each county in the district presents a favorite son as a worthy recipient of the honors and emoluments of the office. Trigg presents in the person of Jas. B. Garrett, a man who, as a lawyer and a gentleman, is the peer of any man in the district. He made the race six years ago and came in a few votes of election. He will make an excellent race this time, and if elected the district may differ itself

on having in him an officer in every way qualified for the discharge of his official duties, and a gentleman of the strictest integrity and honor.

Mr. J. F. Dempsey, the Hopkins county candidate, is a young attorney of great popularity in his county.

He is at present County Attorney, and makes a model officer. He is rather young, but no doubt would make a faithful, conscientious officer.

From Lyon and Caldwell we have

Messrs. Wake and Davall, who are highly lauded by their local electors.

While we have no personal acquaintance with them, we know from the reputation they sustain as lawyers

that they would not make discreditable officers.

From our own county Sam'l O.

Graves is an aspirant to the office.

Mr. Graves is one of the most eloquent and gifted lawyers at the Hopkinsville bar, and has recently made some speeches very creditable to him

both as a prosecutor and defender.

He enters the race at a late day but will be one of the contending steers

in the final heat.

As we may sum up the situation about as follows: If each one carries his own county the first vote will be as follows: Trigg, Garrett; 7; Hopkins,

Dempsey; 7; Lyon, Wake; 3; Caldwell, Davall; 5; Christian, Graves; 4.

Christian and Hopkins will elect—their combined vote being 16, while the other three counties give 15.

Unless another county is added to the district the indications are that the final race will be between Messrs.

Garrett and Graves. In that event

the man who can carry Hopkins will be the winner. It is not guess work, though, to attempt to tell this far ahead who will be the man, but whoever wins will certainly deserve the office, as the canvass will be unusually hot and exciting.

A friend to all and an enemy to none we will watch the battle with interest and heartily support the nominee.

"Jeff, Davis is good. Keep with you your 'tree advertisement.' But we have 'learned' of Charlie Meacham before, all the same. Yes, we shall never forget the night—one of those cloudy, blustering ones, when the moon is obscured, and the elements

are at war with everybody, standing on the bank looking for a steamboat

—was a night like that when we went into a restaurant, at Evansville, monstrous hungry, and called for supper, and then the landlord remarked—ah, we can never forget it!

"You will have to wait while, sir,

until the cook goes out and gets something. A newspaper man from Hopkinsville has just been here, and we haven't a thing left." The salt had been vanquished.—Henderson News.

He had heard of you before and knew that nothing short of an "ox

on toast" would be anything like a snack for you, even when you had no appetite. As you were "unconscious hungry" he knew you would break up his establishment, and just told you that yarn to get rid of you.

Senator Thurman evidently regards his prospective retirement as a matter of fact. The following incident is related:

"How are you, Judge Thurman?"

said Secretary Sherman, as he approached the senator. Senator Truman said in the Senate Chamber. "For give you, Mr. Secretary?" said Senator Thurman, rising, "sit down."

"No, thank you," retorted the Secretary. "Oh, but I insist that you sit down in this chair," replied the Senator. "I see by the papers that you are young first, and then, and then

Mr. Graves' Response.

HOPKINSVILLE, Dec. 9th, 1879.

Messrs. C. G. Shannahan, S. M.

mon and others:

GENTLEMEN:

I heartily thank you for the call contained in this week's issue of the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN, and a similar communication handed to me.

I thank you for the encouragement it brings me; I thank you for its cordial proffer of support, and,

more than all, I thank you for the friendship which underlies it.

In compliance with your request, I shall formally announce myself as a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney of the Second

Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party; and shall strive throughout the canvass so to be myself that your support of me

shall not be fruitless nor your friendship for me lessened.

In this connection, I would express my gratitude for the very compementary article in the New Era of the 21st instant. I trust that this will be taken as a not unkindly answer to I am, gentlemen, gratefully and sincerely, SAM'L O. GRAVES.

HERE AND THERE.

Uncle Dan's Ills.

Boys take your sweethearts Thursday night.

For handsome Christmas gifts go to Howes.

No preaching at the Baptist and Episcopal churches Sunday last night.

The Messenger from Jarvis Section at Mozart Hall Thursday night.

A tobacco exchange is being erected on Clay street near the Lewis House.

Dr. F. M. Gray will take charge of the late Cooper House on Va. street Jan. 1st.

If the old Board is re-elected the anti-bank men will have triumphed after all.

Jim Iremith is a gentleman and merits the support of the better class of people.

The race of City Attorney has no political significance. Vote for Jim Iremith.

The corner is the rear of the new bank has been enclosed by a neat plank fence.

The juvenile club held a most enjoyable meeting at the Payne house Friday night.

The debate was postponed Friday night in deference to several other entertainments.

Mr. Louis Solomon has moved into the new house on Nashville street in front of Dr. Gilds.

We would suggest that the Debate Society discuss the question: "Is matrimony an epidemic?"

The oyster supper given by the Baptist ladies Friday night was a decided success, notwithstanding the rain.

Five of the old Board are opposed to Gravel schools. It is safe to trust the measure in the hands of its enemies.

Jim Iremith is one of Hopkinsville's most talented young men and will make a good city attorney.

The bond men present a ticket composed of good substantial men from all parties.

The authority men are getting desperate. They have been beaten once and dread defeat a second time.

The bond men present but one ticket, it is not the ticket of a faction but of a majority, as was proven at the polls a few weeks ago.

Bear in mind that the bond ticket has on it some names of the old ticket, whenever "experience" is urged.

About fifty persons were baptized into West Union church last Tuesday, at Hellewell, by the pastor, Rev. A. W. Menham.

We will furnish the South-Kentuckian and Peterson's Magazine one year for $3.00, cash in advance. Now is the time to subscribe.

Messrs. Blumenfeld, McCamy & Blount are erecting another new house near the rock spring. It will be occupied by Mr. L. R. Steiner.

Jim Iremith will not stoop to the level of the common politician and buy votes with liquor. He is running upon his character and qualifications.

We would advise everybody who contemplates making a nice Christmas present to go to Howes' Jewelry store and examine the beautiful line of goods Mr. Howes has just received for the holiday trade.

Those new style ladies watches and chains at Howes' Jewelry store are the handsomest we have ever seen.

Mr. Howes has an elegant line of ladies necklaces, gold rings, silverware, etc. All new styles just received.

Nearly all of the old Board opposed a measure which concerned the people, and which the people determined by a majority of 60 votes that they would have. Now can their friends claim that they represent the will of the people and have the best interest of the people at heart?

Hon. Jas. H. Garnett is formally announced as a candidate for Commonwealth's attorney. He possesses energy, talent and popularity and enters the race for the purpose of being elected. He is a native of Christian and a resident of Trigg and will therefore poll a heavy vote in both counties.

After a painful interval of several weeks, we are again to have a first class show. Mr. B. Macaulay, as "Uncle Dan" in the messenger from Jarvis Section is billed for Thursday night. The Louisville papers were enthusiastic in their praise of the place during the stay of the Troupe in Louisville. The Courier-Journal especially spoke in highly commendatory terms of "Uncle Dan's." Our people are always ready to turn out and attend a first class entertainment and we bespeak a full house for Macaulay. Let everybody go. Tickets for sale at the usual places and prices.

Mr. Geo. F. Davidson, of Louisville, the popular and gentlemanly agent of P. P. Mast & Co., manufacturers of farming implements and machinery, Springfield, Ohio, departed for home last week, after a sojourn of several weeks in the city. Mr. Davidson is a gentleman of genial, obliging manners and of the strictest integrity as a business man. He has made many warm friends and congratulated himself upon the esteem of all with whom he has been thrown. His machines give eminent satisfaction in every instance, and are always just what he represents them to be. He will return again about the first of February.

Freight train number 60 N. Hack conductor ran over a negro boy named Jacob Ware, at Pembroke Thursday and killed him instantly. The boy was swinging on the train and fell off.

CROFTON.

Mr. J. O. Cooper is now fairly settled in his new quarters, at the Phoenix and is just spreading himself. Several important changes have been made in the modus operandi, and Cooper's Phoenix is now without doubt the finest and best hotel in Southern Kentucky. Everything is conducted after the fashion of the first hotels, and the whole establishment is under the immediate supervision of Mrs. Cooper in person. As a hostess she has few equals and no superiors. Hopkinsville is proud of the Phoenix Hotel and ought to be proud of Col. Cooper as a landlord. His business is fairly booming. He now has fifty or more regular boarders. Long may he wave.

Mr. B. Macaulay.

We are pleased to announce the appearance at Mozart Hall, on Thursday night, 11th inst. of the realistic American comedian, Mr. B. Macaulay, in his delightful portraiture of quack character, "Uncle Dan" in E. A. Locke's American Comedy-drama entitled "A Messenger from Jarvis Section."

The following is from a long editorial in the Courier-Journal of 29th ult.

"Uncle Dan" is a square-built, honest man. His heart is as big as his body. Mr. Macaulay plays him to perfection. No man can stage a more original or more unique. It is a gem. It warms good men and good women, and like Dick Steiner's best, makes men forget their debts. Too much can not be said of it.

Remember he will be here but one night, 11th inst. and that reserved seats can be secured at the usual places.

POLICE NEWS.

Report of P. M. Owen, Chief of Police, for the month of November:

Pett larceny.....5

Breach of Peace.....3

Drunk and disorderly.....3

Murder.....1

Total.....13

This is the smallest report of the year. The present police force is the most efficient the city has ever had.

One day last week Sam Doss and Ira Cooper two ex-convicts were arrested near Hellewell charged with robbing and burning a church in that vicinity. While they were in a cabin being guarded, some person shot Doss through a crevice from the effects of which he died the next day. Cooper was brought into the city by a regiment of militia mustered for the purpose, and is now in jail awaiting trial, which will be Thursday. Richard Wade has been arrested charged with the killing of Doss and is in jail, and will be tried to-day. Our readers will be advised of the proceedings of the trial.

SINKING FORD.

The end of the year draws nigh; let's settle up, and begin the next year with the world and all mankind. We will all have a merrier time during the holidays, and feel better, wealthier, and enjoy the blessings of Heaven, physical and moral, more heartily. If we can lay us down to slumber on the eve of the departing year, clear of our obligations to man, and with a conscience void of offense toward God.

Notwithstanding the unsettled state of the weather, several of our farmers have killed their pork and much fat is entered into the market. It may well be said, "We know of none however, that has been lost so far. The weather has been changed; the cold snap foiled many."

Hogs are scarce in this section; there being none for market, and some of our farmers will have to buy for home use.

Mules are scarce; none for sale.

Cattle are still at present. There was considerable trade in month or so since, but about all are sold, and no demand.

Miss Amanda Thurmond is visiting Mrs. Cooper, at the Phoenix.

Miss Lucy A. Everett is spending a week at Fairview, with her brother. Come back soon, young ladies, we miss you.

Mr. Charlie Payne and wife formerly residents of this vicinity, are among us, visiting their old friends and relatives. They will remain a month or two.

The health of the community is generally very good. There has not been much sickness this season. We hear of a case of fever and pneumonia, occasionally.

Young Mr. Hunt, who broke his arm several weeks since, is about well, with a good arm again.

A school-house near Ego Doss was burned on Tuesday night last. We have since ascertained it was the work of an incendiary, Sam Doss Jr., who with his companion, Ira Cooper, a refugee from justice in Illinois, were caught Wednesday night, in the barn of Ego Doss and confined at his house for safe keeping until next morning. They were closely guarded; yet, about daylight Thursday morning, a shot was heard, which upon investigation found to have been from some unknown party, and took effect through the body of young Doss. It was not instantly fatal, but he died some hours after 11 o'clock A. M. He was lost with the family, and the other, in charge of several citizens, was carried to Hopkinsville, there being a reward of some $500 offered for him. We understand, young Doss was sent back for by the authorities, dead or alive, to be brought to Hopkinsville. We do not know subsequent events, suppose you do. Editor: Justice News.

Preaching at Siddons 3rd. Sunday, by the pastor Rev. J. Lewis, all come and we venture they will be pleased. We can see no reason why any one should fail to attend church, unless on account of sickness. The Lord will call you to an account soon, in a time you know not of. Come out and hear Bro. Lewis it possible 3rd Sunday.

We hear from good authority, old Isaac is scarier than for many years. Mr. Han Boyd is out, and it must be very scarce when Uncle Han's bacon fails short.

CROFTON.

Miss Sis Grant, daughter of Mr. Geo. Grant, died of consumption at her home in the city yesterday.

Mr. Philip Watson has removed to "Dunlap."

There is a man engaged in the business here who was in "Knox's" command when Custer and his followers were butchered by Sitting Bull and his red devil. This man knew Custer well, stood guard at his tent. It is interesting to hear him talk of that world famous yellow-haired hero, who "killed" tens of thousands of "red devils" and was the savior of the white man.

We intend to interview him extensively and write it all out for the South-Kentuckian as soon as possible.

Coru is selling rapidly here for $2.00 per barrel. There is not much more to sell. Last summer we had too much agitation on the Greenback question, people sat around saloons and whittled pipe and talked politics instead of handling corn and saving wheat. We tell you again, young man, this will not do. If you want money go to work for it; here is the secret in money getting. Work! Work! either of the head or hands. This will bring it; nothing else. The man who listens to any other song, however seductive it may be, is a madman, a monster, a fool. We do not believe in working money, but we do most seriously believe in owning enough of this world's goods to be independent. We are too proud spirited to be dependent on others for the bread that we eat or the clothes that we wear. We know, young man, that we are right on this question, although we may be wrong on all others.

Say, Charlie, while we think of it, is Shortwell the man that married some of your folks recently? Do you know of any more female folks who would like to go and do likewise? If so send 'em down this way for "Summer is passed and winter is here. Beauty is gone and darkness is dark; happy are those who thus reform. In keep their other song and warm."

We are really to marry now, have been getting ready for many long, dreary, dark years. I'd wouldn't it be too long to marry I? Well, we never saw but one girl we wanted and she—oh—she ate cabbage and we found it out and went back on her, and we tell you now, fair reader, that we are glad of it.

We are sorry those Northern States were Republican. We are for Grant first, last and forever for President and we are afraid the Republican party will come to the conclusion that they can elect any body and will not nominate him.

There are, only six birds on 20,000 acres here, which is a record. I have pounds of shot sent after them.

We have had much experience with dogs. Generally they are not migratory, but we found one yesterday that was. We took him home with us and gave him a square meal and offered him a good home, and don't you think he will stay? He followed us all the way home.

Somebody bored into J. P. Wilson's store at Kelly's this week and stole two suits of clothes and a shot gun.

Jim Lewis, who is carefully handling a pistol, shot himself through the fore finger to-day. Shoot away, Jim, as long as you shoot yourself nobody dare bludge or make afraid.

Robert McFarland has opened a shoe shop in the rear of Jim Lewis. He is a good workman; we've tried him.

We are pained to learn of the fat of a very able young minister. There is a woman in the case. Young man, hang on to the ragged edge of civilization. The devil like a man and outlive the follies of your indiscreet days.

When Daniel Webster lay a corpse on old neighbor and admirer gazed at his sleeping dust and said, "The world will be lonely now. Mr. Webster, I think in an hour after you nobody dare bludge or make afraid."
